Order Instituting Rulemaking to Establish
Policies and Rules to Ensure Reliable, Long-Term
Supplies of Natural Gas to California.

Rulemaking 04-01-025
(Filed January 22, 2004)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES' RULING REGARDING SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

The procedural schedule in the above-captioned Order Instituting Rulemaking calls for the respondent gas utilities to file their Phase I proposals on February 24, 2004. The rulemaking also allows interested parties to file comments on the Phase I proposals on or before March 23, 2004, and for the respondents to file reply comments on or before April 6, 2004.

The rulemaking also calls for the respondents to file their Phase II proposals on or before March 23, 2004, comments by interested parties on or before May 4, 2004, and reply comments by the respondents on or before May 18, 2004.

The rulemaking also specifies that the service list in Rulemaking (R.) 02-06-041 shall be used as the initial service list for this proceeding, and shall continue in effect until a ruling notifying parties of a new service list is issued. In addition, the assigned Administrative Law Judges and the staff listed in R.04-01-025 at page 27 are to be served as well. The rulemaking also provides that service of the comments on the service list is to be made by electronic means, unless no electronic address has been provided.

This ruling is to advise the respondents, and all persons interested in filing comments in this proceeding, that the electronic service of all proposals, comments, and reply comments in this proceeding shall be served on everyone listed on the service list for R.02-06-041. That means persons who are listed on the R.02-06-041 service list as an “appearance,” “state service,” and “information only,” shall be served with these documents.¹ In addition, the documents shall also be served on the electronic addresses of the persons listed on page 27 of R.04-01-025.

A new service list for R.04-01-025 will be created following the filing of comments on the Phase II proposals, or at a prehearing conference, whichever occurs first. A ruling will issue advising the persons interested in this proceeding of the new service list, and when the new service list shall go into effect.

If anyone interested in R.04-01-025 is not listed in the R.02-06-041 service list as an “appearance,” “state service,” or “information only,” he/she may send a letter to the Commission’s Process Office, 505 Van Ness Avenue, Room 2000, San Francisco, California 94102, asking that he/she be included in the R.02-06-041 and R.04-01-025 service lists as “information only.”² If you are a respondent to this rulemaking, or planning to file comments on the Phase I or Phase II proposals, your name will be added as an appearance in the R.04-01-025 service list.

¹ Normally, persons who are listed as “information only” receive only Commission-generated rulings, proposed decisions, and Commission decisions.

² Although R.02-06-041 is no longer an active proceeding (closed as of January 22, 2004), the service list in R.02-06-041 shall be used until a new service list is formally established for R.04-01-025.

Therefore, IT IS RULED that:

1. The electronic service of all proposals, comments, and reply comments in this proceeding shall be served on everyone listed on the service list for Rulemaking (R.) 02-06-041, and on the electronic addresses listed on page 27 of R.04-01-025, until a ruling directing the use of a new service list is issued.
2. Persons interested in R.04-01-025, who are not currently listed in the R.02-06-041 service list, may send a letter request to the Commission's Process Office asking that they be included as "information only" to the R.02-06-041 and R.04-01-025 service lists. (See footnote 2.)

Dated February 17, 2004, at San Francisco, California.
